PREFACE

To make a book that is different without at the same time defying good taste is the aim and ambition of all who have held the position of Sou'Wester Editor. Whether the aims and purposes of this year's staff have been realized remains for the ultimate judge, the reader, to say; and it is to him, not to the artist and not to the literary critic, that the 1939 Sou'Wester has been directed.

To the fresh charm of college life which in the restless youth stirs exciting dreams of things to come—which in later years returns again and again in captivating memories of exciting events, youthful blunders, unspoiled friendships—to that unique glamour is this volume dedicated.

It is with great pleasure that we present this book to you. You may turn on for the 1939 Sou'Wester.

THE EDITOR

JOHN WILLIAM BERGIN, Ph.B., D.D.

President of Southwestern University

A Message from the President:

In a recent address the President of John Hopkins University asks a question: "Why do young folk go to college?" Then he answers: "First, to find out what they've got; second, to develop it." And might he not have added, third, to learn to relate it to the solution of problems of the world in happy cooperation with his fellow man?

This is the work that Southwestern University has endeavored to do in individual education for one hundred years. Many are the leaders in America in both church and state that have received their education here.

May I congratulate the student body of 1938-39 on being the Peer of any student body ever to have attended Southwestern University?

REVIEW OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON

This year we present with pride the standing of the Southwestern Pirates in the race for the Texas Conference football championship.

One morning back in September "Lefty" Edens strode onto the field to look over eight lettermen, who had returned to the fold, a few squadmen and a bumper crop of junior college backs. What, he moaned, was he going to use for a line behind which his new finds could gallop. The beef he had planned on hadn't materialized and the papers were full of reports of the great strength of other schools who had long been companions to Southwestern in the lower bracket.

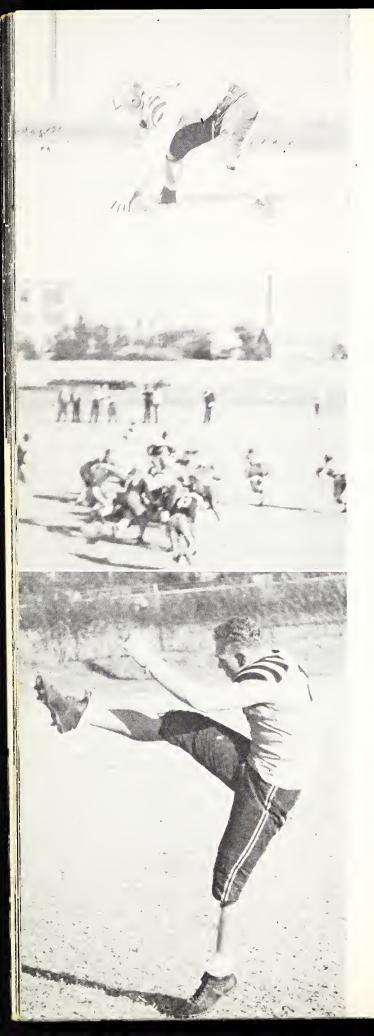

In just a few days after practice started "Tossin' Teddy" Fehr received a knee injury which made the coach moan still more.

A set-up game which had been arranged for an early season opener proved to be just that —not even a test of this new and unpredictable team. Lon Morris stood dismayed as the reliable Knight and two new finds, Burleson and Lee, scored at random to come out 33-0.

Baylor University with three fine teams completely reversed the tables next week to show the Pirates the other end of a 33-0 score. Here was another find, though. "Dutch" O'Neil averaged 5 yards more on each punt than could the famed Billy Patterson. Things were looking up.

Bremer had been injured the week before the Pirates met Denton teachers. The center was wide open, the teachers hit the spot, and the score was 27-6 with the Pirates behind again. O'Neil's punts again averaged 49 yards.

With two stinging defeats behind them, the veteran backs, who were to be the power of the team, on the injured list, and very little hope the Corsairs trotted onto the field at St. Edwards. The Tigers had imported the hopefuls from the famous South Bend Indiana squad and outweighed Edens men 20 pounds at every position. "Doc" Godbey strode out onto the field and had a little chat with the boys, told them what they were up against and asked them to play ball. Little C. L. Lee averaged six yards on every run. Beartracks Knight played with his hand in a plaster cast. No one could have downed them that night. Everything went their way and the victory was a glorious one. Nine players were carried from the field of play. What a ball game!

A special train to San Marcos, the Pirate band, and an 87 yard run by little Guy Brantley featured the next game as the Pirates again won 6-0.

Greatly outweighed again the Pirates took on the highly touted Abilene Christian team for a homecoming game on Snyder field. A rain-soaked field, several injuries, and lots of hard luck took the game for the Christians and Southwestern stood one and one in conference games.

A week of rest worked miracles on this underdog team, this team of fighting freshmen. The Trinity Tigers rolled in on a special train high hopes for an easy win. McMurry and McBay blocked a punt and recovered for that first touchdown which again sparked the boys to victory. The opponents had been doped at least three touchdowns better.

The McMurry Indians bit the dust to a tune of 31-6 the following week. Five touchdowns were rolled up by four new little backs, the heaviest of which weighed 160 pounds.

Another impressive win loomed ahead as the Pirates prepared for the Daniel Baker Hillbillies who had failed to win a game. Lee and Brantley took turns scoring and McMurry and Knight scored every extra point.

The stage was set for the final test. Three times in the past twelve years the Corsairs had had the opportunity of winning the conference by defeating the always powerful Howard Payne Yellowjackets in the traditional Turkey day game. Three times they had failed. Here was the opportunity once more. If ever a Pirate team fought it was that day. Followers of both teams appeared from everywhere to fill the stands at Brownwood. Superior reserve strength and the "winning habit" were credited with giving the Jackets another 7-0 victory and another conference championship.

Pirate followers felt numb for awhile and then started looking forward to that same team practically intact for next year with high hopes for another season.

The Southwestern University Chorus is one of the outstanding organizations on the campus. Through their concerts they are known from Chicago to Brownsville, and are highly recognized in all of the cities in which they have sung. They are one of the twelve choruses in the United States that were invited to appear at the National Biennial Convention and Festival of the National Federation of Music Clubs that was held in Baltimore, Maryland, in May, 1939. They have appeared before audiences of 5000 and were received with great enthusiasm. Their national rating is one of the highest for this type of organization in the United States.

CALENDAR

Feb. 24-25. Debaters Do Rant in Durant!

March 2. Barbs cinch intra-mural basketball title in overtime clinch with K A's.

March 13-18. Dr. Harold Cooke speaks in chapel—to a full house Monday and three sleepy souls Saturday.

March 6-11. Corrigan week. Vice Versa party finishing touch. Peculiar couples.

March 18. Students elect Pat Manford, Lewis Doan, Isabell Campbell, Louis Bremer. Some were surprised.

March 23. The Great Virgil—imported by The Great Minard.

March 24-25. Texas Student Government Congress.

March 24. Open House at Women's Building. Girls throw things into closets for first time since September.

April 1. Senior Day. Mid-Semester. Megaphone edition creates stir—and some belief.

April 4. Kappa Sig formal. Preceded with a dinner. No chicken.

April 7. Easter recess.

April 11. Class work resumed. Students catch up on sleep.

April 13. Science Society initiation. Godbey fries the sausage.

April 19. Tri Delt formal. Rush week starts. Exes return to steal the show.

April 27. A. D. Pi formal.

April 28. Slimes pull a fast one, and Rogers went to the Golden Gloves!

May 1. Hanging May baskets. Sweet and entirely traditional.

May 12. Senior minstrel—led by the beef-trust chorus.

May 18-19. Trustees ban dancing for 99th consecutive time.

May 23-37. Senior finals. "To you from failing hands we throw the torch."

May 29-June 3. Finals—now people realize that they should have studied in January. Weeping, wailing, and other conventional attitudes.

June 4. Baccalaureate Sermon.

June 5. 99th commencement. 61 new teachers looking for most any other type of job.

In the meantime—The Sou'Wester appears. How, why, or when, the staff can't say at this writing.
